

Making Decisions Together...

- At Telford Infant School we are involved in democratic processes, i.e. electing class school councillors.
- As a class we choose parts for our school plays.
- We help the teachers choose themes for our learning, and we tell them how we want to learn, even if it is outside!

Understanding Rules Matter...

- At Telford Infant School all children and adults are aware of our behaviour policy, understand and follow it.
- We have regular opportunities during 'reflection time' in assembly to reflect on our learning and behaviour.

Freedom For All...

- At Telford Infant School we understand responsibility in school.
- We know who's who around our school and the jobs they do!
- We know that 'Loving Learning' is what our school is all about.
- We think about making good choices following behaviour incidents.
- We support lots of charities by holding fundraising events in school, having non-uniform days and also by dressing up!

British Values

Mutual Respect...

- Personal, social and emotional aspects of learning are taught across all year groups in our school.
- We work with our cluster schools on exciting projects.
- Our grown-ups model positive relationships and we do too!
- We enjoy learning about lots of different religions in our school.
- Our school councillors share our lovely ideas with the rest of the school!
- We enjoy playing sports against other schools.
- We all have the right to feel safe all the time.

Treat Others As You Want To Be Treated...

- We enjoy learning about and respect different cultures and their beliefs.
- We have a school equalities policy.
- We celebrate cultural themes in our classrooms and in assemblies such as: Spanish Week, May Day and Chinese New Year.
- We enjoy visiting our local church St Mary Magdalene's.
- We celebrate religious festivals such as Diwali, Easter, Christmas and Eid.
- We mark British historical events such as Guy Fawkes and Remembrance Day.
